FACTS FOR YOUR FAITH

The Circular geometry of the EARTH

Is.40:22 It is he that sitteth upon the circle of the earth, and the inhabitants thereof are as grasshoppers; that stretcheth out the heavens as a curtain, and spreadeth them out as a tent to dwell in.

The Nomadic & Restive anthropology of ARAB CULTURE

Gen.16:11 And the angel of the LORD said unto her, Behold, thou art with child and shalt bear a son, and shalt call his name Ishmael(Arabic)); because the LORD hath heard thy affliction.

:12 And he will be a wild man; his hand will be against every man, and every man's hand against him; and he shall dwell in the presence of all his brethren.

The Biblical Anti-bacterial WASHINGS of Antiquity

Lev.13:58 And the garment, either warp, or woof, or whatsoever thing of skin it be, which thou shalt wash, if the plague be departed from them, then it shall be washed the second time, and shall be clean.

The Date of ISRAEL'S BIRTH

Ez.4: 3 Moreover take thou unto thee an iron pan, and set it for a wall of iron between thee and the city: and set thy face against it, and it shall be besieged, and thou shalt lay siege against it. This shall be a sign to the house of Israel.

: 4 Lie thou also upon thy left side, and lay the iniquity of the house of Israel upon it: according to the number of the days that thou shalt lie upon it thou shalt bear their iniquity.

: 5 For I have laid upon thee the years of their iniquity, according to the number of the days, three hundred and ninety days(390 Days): so shalt thou bear the iniquity of the house of Israel.

:6 And when thou hast accomplished them, lie again on thy right side, and thou shalt bear the iniquity of the house of Judah forty days(40 Days): I have appointed thee each day for a year. (390 + 40 = 430 Days - Years)

Jer.25:11 And this whole land shall be a desolation, and an astonishment; and these nations shall serve the king of Babylon seventy years(70 Years). (606 BC to 536 BC)

Lev.26:18 And if ye will not yet for all this hearken unto me, then I will punish you seven times more(7 x More) for your sins.

- Total Punishment:  $390 + 40 = 430$  Dy/Yr (Started 606 BC)
- $430 - 70 = 360$  Dy/Yr (536.4BC) / Month of Nisan
- $360 \times 7 = 2,520$  Dy/Yr
- Converting 2,520 Biblical Yrs(360 dy) to 2,483.8 Calendar Yr
- Add 1 year since there was no year between 1BC & 1AD
- = May 15,1948

The Prediction of LIVE WORLWIDE MEDIA

Rev. 11:9 And they of the people and kindreds and tongues and nations shall see their dead bodies three days and an half, and shall not suffer their dead bodies to be put in graves.

The Coming of the SON OF GOD, JESUS CHRIST

Is.9:6 For unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given: and the government shall be upon his shoulder: and his name shall be called Wonderful, Counsellor, The mighty God, The everlasting Father, The Prince of Peace

THE BIBLE:

Some try to challenge the Bible with ignorant & vile formulas: Here is a little insight, not for the Daft, Dishonest or Disingenuous:

MOST PREVIOUS, MODERN & POST-MODERN LITERATURE

CHRISTIAN PREDICTIONS TODAY: (supersede science)

- 2010-11 Earthquakes: Haiti, Argentina-Chile, New Zealand, Japan
- Mullah Omar: Capture / Incapacitation

FUTILITY OF MODERNITY:

- No modern implement can lift the stones of Stonehenge to put them on top of the same pillars.
- No modern engineering can unravel and replicate the pyramids, the terraces of Asia & the Americas.

This should humble idiotic men, quick to relegate previous literature to the archives which has feats unable to be replicated by modern science, physics or engineering. The greatest of this is the BIBLE

Is.2:17 And the LOFTINESS of man shall be BOWED down, and the HAUGHTINESS of men shall be made LOW: and the Lord alone shall be exalted in that day.

ROUND EARTH HISTORY

- Some ancient authorities in the doxographic tradition credited the Greek philosophers Pythagoras, in the 6th century BC, and Parmenides, in the 5th, with recognizing that the Earth is spherical.<sup>[62]</sup>
- Historians of science David Lindberg and Ronald Numbers point out that "there was scarcely a Christian scholar of the Middle Ages who did not acknowledge [Earth's] sphericity and even know its approximate circumference".<sup>[6]</sup>

Christopher Columbus:

- This belief is even repeated in some widely read textbooks. Previous editions of Thomas Bailey's *The American Pageant* stated that "The superstitious sailors [of Columbus' crew] ... grew increasingly mutinous...because they were fearful of sailing over the edge of the world"; however, no such historical account is known.<sup>[121]</sup>
- The myth of the Flat Earth is the modern misconception that the prevailing cosmological view during the Middle Ages saw the Earth as flat, instead of spherical.<sup>[11]</sup>
- This idea seems to have been widespread during the first half of the 20th century, so that the Members of the Historical Association in 1945 stated that:
- "The idea that educated men at the time of Columbus believed that the earth was flat, and that this belief was one of the obstacles to be overcome by Columbus before he could get his project sanctioned, remains one of the hardest errors in teaching."<sup>[2]</sup>
- During the early Middle Ages, virtually all scholars maintained the spherical viewpoint first expressed by the Ancient Greeks. By the 14th century, belief in a flat earth among the educated was essentially dead.

General

- However, among Medieval artists, depictions of a flat earth remained common.<sup>[citation needed]</sup> The exterior of the famous triptych The Garden of Earthly Delights by Hieronymus Bosch is a Renaissance example in which a disc-shaped earth is shown floating inside a transparent sphere.<sup>[4]</sup>

Early Christian Church

From Late Antiquity, and from the beginnings of Christian theology, knowledge of the sphericity of the Earth had become widespread.<sup>[70]</sup>

- Boethius (c. 480 – 524), who also wrote a theological treatise On the Trinity, repeated the Macrobian model of the Earth as an insignificant point in the center of a spherical cosmos in his influential, and widely translated, Consolation of Philosophy.<sup>[85]</sup>
- Bishop Isidore of Seville (560 – 636) taught in his widely read encyclopedia, the Etymologies, that the Earth was round and "resembles a wheel".<sup>[86]</sup>
- The monk Bede (c.672 – 735) wrote in his influential treatise on computus, The Reckoning of Time, that the Earth was round ('not merely circular like a shield [or] spread out like a wheel, but resembl[ing] more a ball'),
- A possible non-literary but graphic indication that people in the Middle Ages believed that the Earth (or perhaps the world) was a sphere, is the use of the orb (globus cruciger) in the regalia of many kingdoms and of the Holy Roman Empire. It is attested from the time of the Christian late-Roman emperor Theodosius II (423) throughout the Middle Ages; the Reichsapfel was used in 1191 at the coronation of emperor Henry VI. However the word 'orbis' means 'circle' and there is no record of a globe as a representation of the Earth since ancient times in the west till that of Martin Behaim in 1492. Additionally it could well be a representation of the entire 'world' or cosmos.
- Hermannus Contractus (1013–1054) was among the earliest Christian scholars to estimate the circumference of Earth with Eratosthenes' method. Thomas Aquinas (1225–1274), the most important and widely taught theologian of the Middle Ages, believed in a spherical Earth; and he even took for granted his readers also knew the Earth is round.<sup>[nb 1]</sup>
- The shape of the Earth was not only discussed in scholarly works written in Latin; it was also treated in works written in vernacular languages or dialects and intended for wider audiences. The Norwegian book Konungs Skuggsjá, from around 1250, states clearly that the Earth is round - and that there is night on the opposite side of the Earth when there is daytime in Norway.

Rebuttal

- In Inventing the Flat Earth: Columbus and Modern Historians, Jeffrey Russell describes the Flat Earth theory as a fable used to impugn pre-modern civilization, especially that of the Middle Ages in Europe.<sup>[9]</sup>

- James Hannam wrote: The myth that people in the Middle Ages thought the earth is flat appears to date from the 17th century as part of the campaign by Protestants against Catholic teaching. But it gained currency in the 19th century, thanks to inaccurate histories such as John William Draper's History of the Conflict Between Religion and Science (1874) and Andrew Dickson White's History of the Warfare of Science with Theology in Christendom (1896). Atheists and agnostics championed the conflict thesis for their own purpose ...<sup>[10]</sup>
- Uncorroborated atheistic aberration claim that some people were excommunicated for believing in a spherical earth.
